

BLESSING

May you see your world fulfilled in your lifetime,
And may the future world hold a place for you,
May your hope last from generation to generation,
Your heart express understanding,
Your mouth speak wisdom,
And your tongue bring forth song;
May your gaze look straight before you,
May your eyes be enlightened by the light of Torah,
And your face shine like the brightness of the heavens;
May your lips utter knowledge,
Your being rejoice in goodness.
And your steps run to hear the words of your heritage.
